PETITIONING THE COURTTo issue a warrant.

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following conditions of supervision:

Violation Number Nature of Noncompliance

1

Standard Condition # 2: The defendant shall report to the probation officer and shall submit a truthful and complete written report within the first 5 days of each month.Supporting Evidence: Marc White is considered in violation of his period of supervised release by making himself unavailable for supervision on or prior to January 10, 2013.

On January 10, 2013, the defendant's mother called the probation office and advised the defendant had not returned home the evening of January 9, 2013. She also advised she had no idea where he might be.

On January 11, 2013, contact was made with the defendant's step father at the defendant's residence. It was confirmed the defendant had not been home since January 9, 2013, and he had not made any contact with the family. At this time the defendant's whereabouts are unknown.

Special Condition # 3: The defendant shall answer truthfully all inquiries by the probation officer and follow the instructions of the probation officer.

Supporting Evidence: Marc White is considered in violation of his period of supervised release by failing to schedule an assessment for chemical dependency treatment on or prior to January 9, 2013.

On January 7, 2013, the defendant was directed to contact First Step Community Counseling no later than January 9, 2013, to schedule his chemical dependency assessment. He was provided with all contact information and directed to report in person to set the appointment. The defendant failed to make contact with First Step Community Counseling.

The U.S. Probation Office respectfully recommends the Court issue a warrant for the arrest of the defendant to answer the allegations contained in this petition.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
